Seminar on Human Rights

A Workshop on Human Rights was organized at College for the M.Ed. and B.Ed. trainees on Saturday. The College Principal Fr. Thomas Prerumalil S.J., welcomed the guest speakers Fr. Philip Manthara S.J., Former President, PUCL, Bihar., Dr. Daisy Narayan, President, State Child Rights Board, Bihar PUCL, and Mr. VinayKanth, Former President Bihar PUCL. In his address the college Principal said, "Seminar on Human Rights is one of the annual features of the college and it's very important for us to make the future teachers aware of human rights."

Fr. Philip Manthara S.J. said, "As human we have natural rights and as nobody gives us this right, no one has the right to take them away from us. He said the Preamble in the Constitution is just not there to be in papers but it should be practiced in reality in our life and teachers should bring the change." He said this year UN is celebrating its 70th year of its foundation. He also referred to Education Commission of 1964-66 which speak of Values which should be lived in the class rooms.

Prof. Daisy Narayan, President, State Child Rights Board, Bihar, spoke on child right. She said, "Every child has the right to life, good health, sanitation and education". She spoke on women harassment and violence. She said every child has a right to get free and compulsory education till the age of 14 and nobody can deprive them from this right which is also in our constitution. Children have the right to be protected and it's the duty of every adult to take care of the child with love. She said, "War is won not on the battle field, but is won in our own primary classroom". She said a teacher should love to teach, love those whom we teach only then we can be good teachers in life.

Prof. VinayKanth, member in PUCL talked on importance of universal education and when we talk of universal education it means education for all. He said we know our constitutional rights but if we don't use them as they are given to us is if no use. He said, "Education is every child's right if we deprive anyone from his right its injustice towards the child". Teacher should be a role model for a child and if the teacher who teaches values have no value himself/herself the teaching has no meaning.

Empowering Women does not need Laws it needs Understanding: Manju

105th International Women's Day was celebrated in College for the M.Ed. and B.Ed. group trainees on Tuesday 8th March, 2016. The seminar opened with Inter-religious prayer service. The College Principal Fr. Thomas Perumalil

S.J., welcomed the Chief Guest and gave an introduction on women's day and presented a brief history of the women's day celebration in the world. He also added, "Be a change you want to see, make a difference think globally and act locally".

The Chief Guest was Ms. Manju Dung Dung, Member, EktaParishad, Bihar. She said, "Women are empowered but in the male dominated society they need to raise their voice against domestic violence, rape, injustice, child marriage, dowry etc. A society is built with men and women but we see that man has moved very rapidly and the women are left behind specially the marginalized group. A society cannot develop until both moves together. She said there is no need to have laws to bring changes in the society but today we need to change the mindset of the people. She said the situation of women is not different in South America, Bangladesh or Pakistan where she had visited for various programme and has faced the same problem." Her input followed with an interactive session in which trainees raised questions regarding women and their concern which were answered by the chief guest Ms. Manju Dung Dung.Four different Houses of the college presented skits on women empowerment. Zakir House presented "Ek Stri ki Atma khata maka d Ladhy RdHk Tagore House presented "Afsar Beti viQi ch Gandhi House presented "Beti Bachaw Beti Padhao Chicple Chi i<* Aurobindo House presented "Udhan: Ek Nai Soch

A song "Hum Honge Kamyab Ek Din ge glasdle; k, d fin was sung by B.Ed. and M.Ed., the college faculty members joined in the song.

Each One Teach One

Each One, Teach One programme came to an end on Bihar Diwas at the College in which 100 B.Ed. group trainees were given a single child to teach for a month. This programme began in February and was concluded with an awareness programme and sports.

An awareness programme was organized "Be Clean, Stay Healthy". Dr. Madhu Singh, Assistant Professor of Biology Department. Students of the age group of 6 to 12 took part in the programme and these children were from the local locality. She explained to the children the importance of hygiene and how to keep themselves clean and stay healthy. Using the slide show and educative videos Madhu Singh explained to the students how important it is to be clean and stay clean. The videos followed with a question answer session to see how much the students have understood and it was found that the students were interactive in giving answers to the questions. Madhu Singh informed them about various disease, its implications, reasons and the way to be aware and stay protected. This followed with an input by Sushil Kumar Singh, Assistant Professor, of SXCE who explained how to keep the surrounding clean and the importance of "Swatch Bharat Abhiyan". He encouraged the children not to make the surroundings dirty and alert others who are trying to throw the garbage on the road which that results in filth.

As the B.Ed. group is divided into four groups each group had to take care of the games to be conducted for the children. Musical Chair, Game on Numbers, Finding the lost coin etc, different kinds of games were conducted for the students and they were awarded with gifts by the college principal. The College Principal thanked the college staff members for working and making this programme a great success. The Principal said, "Bihar Diwas is a day that makes us proud of being in Bihar and working for the development of Bihar. As now it's the end of the community service programme of "EACH ONE, TEACH ONE. You future teachers of the nation have come to know how you can give your contribution towards the society. These children come for daily studies as evening school children at St. Michael but keeping them with you and giving them an individual attention has played a great role in their personal life."
